

AMERICAN MUSICOLOGICAL SOCIETY SOUTHERN CHAPTER NEWSLETTER

Volume 33, No. 2 (December 2003)

NOTE: The AMS Southern Chapter Newsletter is now being distributed as e-mail. Please send your e-mail address to: Jennifer Thomas, School of Music, 130 Music Building, School of Music, University of Florida, PO Box 117900, Gainesville, FL 32611-7900 or thomasjs@ufl.edu.

GAINESVILLE 2003 2003 MEETING

Call for Papers

This year's meeting of the American Musicological Society-Southern Chapter will be held February 13-14 in Gainesville, Florida, at the University of Florida School of Music. The University of Florida campus offers a variety of attractions, including the Reitz Union Gallery, Harn Museum of Art, the Florida Museum of Natural History, and the Philips Center for the Performing Arts. On Friday, February 13, the Philips Center will present Movement (R)evolution: New African Dance, "featuring Three distinct companies from three equally distinct countries

featuring Compagnie Rary (Madagascar) Several Make One Sello Pesa (South Africa) Same but Different
Compagnie Kongo Ba Tiria (Burkina Faso) Vin Nem

Lodging: Gainesville offers a number of hotels in many price ranges. As on most large campuses, parking can be difficult, so a hotel within walking distance provides a distinct advantage. These are:

Reitz Union Hotel, 352-392-2151, or ruhotel@union.ufl.edu, is located on the University of Florida campus, an easy 5 or 10 minute walk from the conference site. Parking for guests is available. Breakfast is available in a food court located within the Reitz Union or at several nearby locations. A room with one queen or two double beds is $60 (add $5.00 for a second person).

Holiday Inn University Center, 1250 W. University Ave, 352-376-1661, or holidayinn.com, is also a 5-10 minute walk from the conference site.